AN INTERESTING INTERVIEW.

Mr. Na Tung, Vice-Minister of Finance in China, and Vice-Envoy to the Osaka Exhibition, was interviewed by a representative of the Chun on board the Nagato Maru when the latter vessel arrived at Moji on the 27th ult.

"China," he said, "has foreign debts amounting to 600,000,000 taels, and she also has to pay to the Powers an indemnity of 470,000,000 taels. But, owing to the poor condition of the National treasury, the payment of these debts would be difficult unless the commerce and industry of the nation are fostered and more money is thus obtained for the treasury. There are various ways of fostering commerce and industry, but I may mention one of the most urgent and important steps to be taken, and that is to facilitate exchange by unifying our currency system and establishing banks in various parts of the country. In a general way I may say that it is in; on the one hand, to find new sources of revenue for the Government and on the other to provide the people with facilities for increasing their wealth."

"The object of our present visit to Japan is not only to see the Osaka Exhibition, but also to investigate your gold standard system, the organization of your banks and other taxes with a view to the collection of necessary material in case China wishes to adopt similar institutions in the future."

"The Chinese request that the foreign Powers consent to receive payment of the indemnity in silver instead of in gold has been rejected by the Powers, but the Peking Government has not yet taken any definite step toward the solution of the question. Neither has the proposal for the collection of the Customs duties in gold been decided either way."

"As to the evacuation of Manchuria, the Chinese Government has negotiated with the St. Petersburg Government as well as with the Russian representative at Peking, insisting on the speedy withdrawal of their troops from the above territory and has obtained an answer to the effect that Russia will fulfil, without failure, her promise contained in the existing Manchurian convention. Therefore it may be expected that the Northern Power will evacuate Manchuria after all."

"I cannot of course say whether or not some fresh questions may arise on the subject of the evacuation. But as to the seven items contained in the alleged demand she is now pressing on China, none of them seems to be acceptable to the Peking Government."

Mr. Na Tung further stated that with regard to the working by Russia of the mines lying within a distance of 30 Chinese miles of the Manchurian railway, negotiations have already been concluded between the two countries.—Japan Times.

A BRUSH WITH SALT SMUGGLERS.

A patrol of a dozen armed salt excisemen while in the vicinity of Woosung came across a band of salt smugglers entering a couple of boatsloads of salt on the 1st instant, with the result that the excisemen attempted to capture the salt and its escort. The inhabitants of the villages near-by sympathized, as is the case the world over, with the smugglers and came out in large numbers to assist in repelling the officers of the salt gabelle. A smart skirmish ensued and some of the villagers were wounded, which so enraged the latter that they fell on the soldiers and by mere force of numbers overpowered the party and allowed the smugglers and their cargo to escape the place. Seven excisemen were captured, says the M. C. D. News, the other five having thrown away their arms and fled the scene as soon as they saw that matters had become serious. The captive were eventually released, but not before they had been stripped of their uniforms, while five breech-loading rifles and their accompaniment of cartridges, five flintlock pistols and a quantity of slugs and coarse gunpowder and three swords became the spoil of the villagers and smugglers.

HARIES AND CHILDREN

should be fairly plump. They ought to put on fat as fast as they use it up, for fat is fuel, and the burning of it makes power and force. Thin children—even along to the age of eighteen or twenty—are in danger from consumption, and from other wasting complaints. The children who starve, and the young men and women who are consumed—why, the very idea of it is frightful. For such as they there is always what the Bible calls a "mighty famine" in the land. Food, though it may be taken plentifully, does not nourish them. It makes no fat; it gives no strength. To prevent this, to cure this, to save the young ones at the mother's knees, and the bright boys and girls who are just looking at the world with hopeful and ambitious eyes, is the purpose of

WAMPOL'S PREPARATION.

Its success is decided and settled. Thousands owe to it life and health. It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. In building up pale, puny, emaciated children, particularly those troubled with Anemia, Scrofula, Rickets, and bone and blood diseases, nothing equals it; its tonic qualities are of the highest order. Parents whose children are sick cannot resort to it a day too soon. A Medical Institution says: "We have used your preparation in treating children for coughs, colds and inflammation; its application has never aided us in any case, even the most aggravated bordering on pneumonia. The children like it, they love the taste of it, it looks good to them, and it builds up their bodies; many little children owe their lives to it." The more it is used the less will be the ravages of disease among the people from infancy to old age. Every dose effective. "You cannot be disappointed in it." At all chemists and A. S. ## THE KWANGSI FAMINE.

Harrowing details of the distress prevailing in the famine stricken districts of Kwangsi have reached us from both official and private sources. The news which continue to arrive and which we have obtained from Mr. C. Clementi, an official almoner deputed, on behalf of the Government of Hongkong, to investigate the condition of distress by personal inspection of the district along the West River, are of a nature which shows that the people of Kwangsi are in a truly pitiable condition, and to render succour to whom appeals cannot be made in vain. In connection with the present state of affairs in the neighbouring province, a well-informed Chinese correspondent suggests the consideration of the question of assistance being rendered the farmers to retain their plough cattle in the country as a means of alleviating future distress once the present sufferings are distended over by assistance from abroad. We place the subject before the local Relief Committee in precisely the form that was communicated to us, feeling convinced that it will commend itself to consideration in the proper quarters. Our correspondent states, that by a recent proclamation of the Chinese authorities the exportation of buffaloes and oxen from Kwangsi is prohibited, and he believed, the Imperial Maritime Customs officials were informed of the prohibition, and advised to take measures to give effect to it accordingly. A later notification exempted the export of cattle intended for consumption, but the order restricting the disposal of buffaloes remained effective; inasmuch as the Chinese authorities rightly regard the retention of the latter on the provincial farms as a safeguard for the labourers in whose interest animals for ploughing the fields must be had in sufficient quantity when better times follow the present period of distress. The malcontents in the province are ready purchasers of any animal offered for sale by the tillers of the soil, as with little difficulty they succeed in disposing of their stock at remunerative prices. In our correspondent's opinion help can be given the farmers by the British authorities in Hongkong by proclaiming that importation of buffaloes into the Colony for re-export be prohibited, providing that, after personal investigation by Mr. Clementi on the spot, he report that such a measure is advisable in the interest of the people and should be adopted for their benefit. It is stated that, if importation into the Colony be prohibited, the means of disposal in the interior will not be so easy of accomplishment. At present, in spite of the provincial prohibition, cattle dealers find it to their advantage to chance running the gauntlet and surreptitiously drive the cattle overland across the Chinese boundaries into British territory and so bring them across to Kowloon where the cattle find a ready market. Good will, it is expected, not only extend to the farmers in the season of plenty as the forthcoming harvests happily promise to be and when the buffaloes will be most needed, but the measure is calculated to stop the rebels from taking away the animals from the country when once they find there is no market for them in the adjacent territory. It has also been ascertained that a few hundred buffaloes were collected in a certain locality where they have been detained and are watched by the Chinese authorities who foresee impending trouble once the animals are permitted to wander away from official keeping.

C. E. LeMunyon has an announcement to make to you very shortly. Watch for it.—Advt.

WHILST the majority of Hongkongites were wrapped up in the arms of Morpheus, a huge flock of birds, presumably quails or storks, passed over the island early this morning. An observer informs us that in the distance the flock appeared to be a fast moving black cloud. On their passage, they emitted a peculiar sound, not unlike that given forth by quails. They were probably bound north.

THE Parisian newspaper Petit Bleu alleges that Lieutenant Wessel Helmuth, who has been arrested at San Remo, Italy, at the instance of the German Government, for selling plans of German fortifications in France, before the trial of Captain Dreyfus at Rennes sold to France the Austrian official list of international spies, and that he added the name of Captain Dreyfus to the list. This contributed to the latter's second condemnation.

WHILST a poor inoffensive Celestial was peacefully fishing by means of a net at Bow-nington Canal late last evening, he suddenly felt a weight in the net and promptly pulled it up. Judge of his surprise when on bringing the net to the surface he found a wriggling mass endeavouring to get out of the net. On closer examination, he saw that the cause of the weight was a huge water snake measuring over five feet long. A passer-by paid him $1 for his haul.

THE London correspondent of the Manchester Dispatch understands that the Colonial Secretary has recently given the American Ambassador to understand that he intends to visit the United States in the autumn. The conversation was quite informal, but Mr. Choate is understood to have expressed the confident belief that if Mr. Chamberlain went to America he would be accorded a most enthusiastic welcome. Mr. Chamberlain, nevertheless, desires that if he be able to go to the United States his visit may be regarded in the light of a purely domestic affair.

ACCORDING to the Siam Observer the dairymen of Bangkok have many grievances and have petitioned the Government for a redress of same. Their grievances are given as follows:—(1) Insufficient for the number of cattle and the required sheds, etc., (2) Too heavy rent, (3) Want of roadways for the necessary carts, and (4) The absence of compensation for the heavy expenses of enforced removal; and their requests are: (1) An additional 600 rai of land to be reserved, (2) A charge per head on milch cows only, calculated to return a rent equal to the rent paid for paddy land in the district, (3) The making forthwith of the necessary roadways, and (4) A grant in aid of the expenses of removal.

THE best sailing vessel flying the American flag is the steel four-master Atlas, which arrived at Baltimore a few weeks ago after a run of 15,300 miles from Hongkong in ninety-two days. The Atlas averaged 172 miles a day and 73 knots an hour. Her best day's run was 372 miles, at the rate of 124 knots an hour. This breaks all authentic records, except that of the barque Amy Turner, which made the run from Hongkong to the Virginia coast in eighty-seven days. The Atlas beat out of sight the British barque Kelat, which cleared for New York eleven days ahead of the Atlas. The English captain is said to have backed the sailing qualities of his vessel, but at the time the Atlas reached Baltimore the Kelat had not arrived in New York.

DEATH OF MR. E. T. DE SOUZA.

There passed away early yesterday morning at the Government Civil Hospital Mr. E. T. de Souza, reception room officer of the Victoria Gaol Department. Deceased, who has been in the service for over fifteen years, was much respected by all his brother officers, and although his demise was expected owing to an abscess in the liver from which he was suffering for some time, his death was rather sudden. He had only a few more months to complete his time when a well-earned pension was due to him. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon and was largely attended by all the staff of the gaol department, both Europeans and Indians, Mr. R. G. Creagh, the superintendent of the gaol, being also present. The late Mr. De Souza leaves a widow and a child to mourn his loss.

ALLEGED MURDER.

From police reports we learn that, late on Sunday night, while a native was crossing the corner of the Government Wanchai Store, leading from Praya East, he knocked against what appeared to be a dead body. Information was at once conveyed to No. 2 Police Station, and Inspector Collet and a party of police proceeded to the scene, and found, to their amazement, that the body was that of a woman in the last stages of life. A terrible wound in the abdomen, where the bowels protruded, and other injuries, inflicted by a sharp weapon were found on other parts of the body, especially in the arms and the lower limbs. An ambulance was immediately sent for, but before the hospital was reached, the poor woman expired. It is a clear case of attempted murder, and although the police are instituting inquiries no clue has yet been effected.

month, but he was married and had one child. During the evening in question witness said nothing rude or the least ungentlemanly, and he was requested to resign from the Club in consequence of the quarrel.

Do you deny having called him a son of a—?—Yes.
Do you deny having called him a nigger?—Yes.

Did you say either to him or to Mr. Gutierrez words to this effect, "Don't mind him. I don't care a— for him, or Dr. Gomes?"—I don't remember saying these things to him.

Were you drunk, by the by?—No.

Quite sobriety—Yes.
Can you remember anything you said?—I said something about his shares in the Club being given him by his father, and that my shares were my own.

Continuing, witness said that during the quarrel the defendant came at him with his fist.

By Mr. Slade:—The defendant was about 27 or 28 years of age.

Augusto Jose Gomes, brother of the plaintiff, and in partnership with him in Brandao & Co., deposed that as a result of the quarrel the plaintiff had been mentally worried and depressed in spirit which incapacitated him from attending to his work.

By Mr. Slade:—Plaintiff did not suffer from gout (laughter).

Francisco D'Assis Gomes, plaintiff, said he started the firm 42 years ago, and held and still holds, over 20 per cent. of the shares, which placed him in a position of trust. There had been family quarrels between himself and Dr. Gomes with regard to money matters. He did not bear the slanderous words uttered, but had suffered a great deal in his mind on account of the statement. He could not attend to his work for about eight months, and had consequently suffered in the business. His friends appeared to distrust him, and that had injured him in his business.

By Mr. Slade:—He was 65 years of age, and had been well and honourably known since 1857, when he came to the Colony. He formerly wanted an apology from the defendant and his father, and the son offered to sign one in any form witness thought fit to draft. He wanted the whole Colony to know he was an honest man.

Mr. Slade then addressed the jury, observing there was absolutely no defence. The slander was clear and was charged by the plaintiff with being malicious and not without aim or point in its motive. He drew attention to the fact that the points of the statement of defence had not been borne out by evidence, and proceeded to deal with the question of damages pointing out that the plaintiff had expressed his willingness to give such in a charitable fund. Nevertheless he desired the jury to mark their sense of the slander by awarding damages as they thought would be effective in putting a stop to the circulation of such statements.

Mr. Slade addressed the jury, and submitted that plaintiff came to the Court for the purpose of making what he could out of the poor unfortunate Port gues bank clerk. It was disgusting, he said. The best method of preventing the circulation of the slander was to have been for plaintiff to have accepted the offer of the defendant to apologise in any form he might wish. If that had been done nothing more would have been heard of the matter.

His Lordship then summed up, and asked the jury to consider whether they thought the slanderous words were uttered intentionally and deliberately and not as a part of any continuing altercation. If so they must find for the plaintiff and award him such damages as they thought under the circumstances he ought to receive. If, on the other hand, they thought they were uttered unintentionally and as part of previous altercation they must find for the defendant. Regarding the question of payment into Court he asked the jury to take no notice of the statement appearing in the paper regarding the $200, and said they were not bound by the naming of any sum. They could give ten cents damage if they chose, or they could make it $20,000.

The jury retired to consider their verdict a few minutes before four, and upon returning into Court fifteen minutes later gave a unanimous verdict for the plaintiff for $7,000 with costs.

Mr. Slade submitted, with regard to the question of costs, that it was not a case for a special jury.

His Lordship:—Any case in which damages to the extent of $2,000 are given is certainly one to go to a special jury.

The Court adjourned sine die.

DEATH FROM PLAGUE ON THE "ALBION."

The British first-class battleship, Albion, had to leave Yokohama unexpectedly for Weihaiwei. She went there to land Rear-Admiral Grenfell for the purpose of undergoing a course of treatment at the naval hospital, but a Chinese servant on board died of plague on the 1st inst., and it was therefore impossible for anyone, even the Admiral, to land without first going through some days' quarantine. Under the circumstances it was considered the best plan to leave at once for Weihaiwei.

THE P. & O. "VALETTA" COLLISION.

Further details of the recent collision at Singapore, mentioned by us on Saturday, are to hand. The Straits Times of the 4th inst. says:—There was great excitement over a couple of collisions at Tanjong Pagar yesterday and the damage done by the P. & O. s.s. Valletta in attempting conclusions with the Norddeutscher Lloyd s.s. Tanglin and the British India s.s. Zamania. The latter was lying at her usual wharf, bows to the westward, while just ahead of her lay the Tanglin, in the entrance way to the Albert Dock, her stern projecting somewhat outward. The Valletta, with the mails for Hongkong and the north, and under charge of Pilot Hauswell, was coming up near the most westerly of the two stone beacons. It is said that she was trying to avoid a tongkang on her starboard side, and in so doing crashed against the stern of the Tanglin, smashing it up badly and shifting the deckhouse which forms the second class accommodation about a couple of feet towards the starboard side as well as doing other damage. Passing onwards she went against the bows of the Zamania, snapping the latter's bowsprit and decapitating the gorgeous lady who formed the figurehead, besides carrying away a lot of minor gear. As was to be anticipated she did not herself come off scatheless. Her port side lifeboats, davits, stanchions, deck-rails, etc., were swept along and went overboard in a glorious jumble whilst she took charge of a projecting anchor fluke belonging to the Zamania and with it about eighty fathoms of chain cable which had to be cut away, to prevent the B.I. boat from parting her lines. The damage done to the Valletta was not sufficient to preclude her continuing her voyage, which she did after a brief delay. The surveyor's estimate of the cost of the repairs to the Tanglin is $25,000 and it is thought that she will be delayed for at least three weeks.

THE KWANGSI TROUBLES SUPPRESSED.

SERIOUS CLAN FIGHT

ON THE CANTON RIVER.

(From Our Correspondent.)

CANTON, 12th May.
Considerable excitement prevailed on Honam Island last evening in consequence of the booming of big guns and the cracking of rifles which continued without interruption for several hours. On inquiry being made it was ascertained that a fierce clan fight was raging between villagers from Po Ki Chuen and Shik Sau Chuen, close to the Macao Forts and the European burial ground. The combatants were using rifles and large muzzle loading guns, and although the forts were occupied by native soldiers they did not take steps to quell the disturbance. There were large numbers of killed and wounded, and unless some very decided action is taken these clan fights will prove a menace to shipping. In the present instance several ocean steamers were moored in the Back Reach close to the scene of the fight and shots frequently found their way across the water.

THE NEW VICEROY.

PREPARATION FOR A WELCOME.

From a private letter received from Canton, we learn that the gentry are making great preparations in view of the approaching arrival of the new Viceroy for the Two Kwangs, H. E. Sun Tehun Huen. A large meeting was held at the Kwang Ngar School last evening, and it was resolved that a Committee be formed to carry out the necessary arrangements. The programme decided upon is as follows:—On the day the Viceroy arrives there will be cessation of work, and a general holiday. The various shops and guilds are to present the Viceroy with addresses of welcome. In the evening a torchlight and fish lantern procession will take place, with general illuminations and the firing of crackers in all parts of the city. These arrangements have nothing to do with the official programme.

THE GOLD STANDARD IN SIAM.

The gold standard in Siam does not seem to be giving that satisfaction all round as was at first anticipated, because of the want of a permanent fixity of exchange in the market. Referring to our article on the currency of Siam in a recent issue, says the Siam Free Press of the 27th ult., a local business man writes: "I have read your remarks re the 'Gold Standard' and beg to remark that it is an error to state that the selling rate is Tcs. 18½; because it is in fact Tcs. 10½ for the £. The Treasury only is buying for Tcs. 18½ to the £ sterling. But, of course, people will not be ready to sell the £ for Tcs. 18.48 at its, as they get Tcs. 10½ from the local Banks. Therefore, where is the fixity of Exchange? Even if some one wants to buy sovereigns, the Treasury is not able to sell the £ for Tcs. 18½! Our esteemed correspondent's letter embodies a great deal, but as we have pointed out, the present slump in the exchange occurs from the fact that the market is at present overflowing with silver, the foreign merchants and local Banks having enough to last for an indefinite period. In consequence of this, the selling rate from the Government point of view is not encouraging as the demand on the Mint is likely to be slack for some time, unless some unforeseen circumstances, such as the payment of indemnities, the building of new palaces, or the construction of water systems, or other works that would swallow up a lot of the white metal, now hoarded up, be instituted. Otherwise we shall have to wait, until the rainy season sets in, and silver flows out according as rice and teak flow in from the various provinces of the kingdom. But if there remain sufficient still, without having to draw on the Mint, then the upward tendency of the tical is likely to slow, at least, for some time yet, and a permanent fixity is not likely to be realized in the immediate future. However, we believe, that it is ultimately bound to come, as the present reaction is evidently owing to the reasons above stated. But, in any case, it may be pertinently asked if the Government is prepared to sell gold at the rate quoted? If so, we shall, doubtless, have many buyers."

THE SHERWOOD FORESTERS.

In Truth, of the 1st ult., the following item appears:—

A British resident at Tientsin forwards some very serious allegations against the detachment of the Sherwood Foresters who have lately been on duty as part of the guard of that town. He states that a party of them who were travelling to Peking on January 25 by the 9.15 p.m. train behaved in the most ruffianly and disgraceful manner, first driving all the second-class passengers out of the cars into the cattle-trucks on the train, and then invading the first-class dining-saloon, which they looted, driving the other passengers out. There were some native ladies in the train, and the conductor had to lock them in the coupé to keep the soldiers from them. My correspondent states that the railway company, in reply to complaints state that it is useless to report the matter to the British military authorities, as such reports have always been disregarded; and although my correspondent waited two or three weeks after the occurrence in order to see whether any steps were taken to punish the ruffians, nothing had been done up to that date. This is, of course, only an ex parte statement, and some answer to it may be forthcoming. But I cannot believe that a British passenger by the train would send home a complaint of this kind against British soldiers without some very good reason, and if there has been any such misconduct on the part of troops stationed in China, it ought to be very severely dealt with.

SERIOUS COLLISION IN THE INLAND SEA.

COASTING STEAMER SUNK.

The Korean steamer Hansung (790 tons) collided with the Japanese coasting steamer No. 1 Hayami-maru (121 tons) off Mitsugahama, in the Inland Sea, shortly after 11 o'clock on the night of 1st inst. The Hayami-maru was so badly damaged that she went down almost immediately. Of the 72 persons on board her at the time of the accident, 41 were saved, 2 were killed, and the remaining 29 are missing. The unfortunate vessel was daily employed in running between Utsunomiya and Mitsugahama. The Hansung was fully laden, and was on her way from Kobe to Korea, via Moji, with a general cargo.

RUSSIA'S LATEST MOVE RE MANCHURIA.

As our readers well know, aeronaughts are wont before an ascent to send up small trial balloons to ascertain the conditions of the upper atmosphere, and thus make a prognosis for the greater flight. We are not going to lose our head and scream over Russia's somewhat startling revelation of her hand in the game of higher politics which we published yesterday, and which Reuter wires out in another dress from London. We regard it wholly as a balloon d'essai to ascertain the obscure elements in the problem and if possible to "draw" (hateful word in Tientsin) the Far-Eastern Dual Alliance and the United States. We fully believe that if it be met by the menace of armament on the part of the former, and by the moral condemnation of the latter, we shall hear nothing more about it. If on the other hand there is indifference, or inaction or any manifestation of wobble, we shall find the matter pressed home; and within a month or two we shall see the proposals embodied in a formal Convention or Treaty.

As we pointed out a few days ago in dealing with Newchwang, the strength of the Dual Alliance is about to be tested, and great issues hang on the result of the experiment. We British folk in the Far-East are practically unanimous on the subject, and if our views were to determine British policy the latter would be reduced to the greatest simplicity,—"Russia must withdraw or fight." We are, we admit, too close up to the whole position to see it in just perspective, and most of us lack that quality of detachment so necessary in a world-empire like ours, where vast number and variety of divergent interests have to be considered and taken into the account. We see but one factor which in all probability should not be the determinant one.

The question which the statesman of the Dual Alliance and the United States have now to face is practically this:—"Is Manchuria worth fighting for?" We imagine the answer is something like the following:—"No, for its potential and contingent possibilities in these respects. 'Yes, Japan has another and still more urgent consideration in the answer she must give to the strategic advantage which will accrue from the Russian advance to the Great Wall; and most emphatically this consideration ought in all reason to make her resist to check the impending move.' In addition, to the logic of the actual question, in hand, there is also the great consideration of the prospect of success in interference by force. We confess to inability to form a sound opinion on such a matter, but certain facts are notorious and the recapitulation of them may be useful.

The Russian military and naval services are generally believed to be corrupt in their financial aspects, and corruption always means inefficiency in the day of trial. Recent revelations have shown that the fiscal and domestic conditions in Russia are not such that she will willingly enter into a struggle with the wealthiest European Power, especially if there be even a remote chance of America coming in with her inexhaustible resources. M. de Witte may be confident, stands strongly for peace. The Siberian Railway, although a powerful adjunct to Russia in a land struggle is not yet so complete that it means she can bring her whole military strength to bear in the Far East. In the present remarkable equipoise of naval and though the combined fleets of the Allies are undoubtedly the stronger, unity of plan and homogeneity would be on the other side.

The unknown element of the problem is the attitude of other Powers. There has clearly been a tendency of late to shift the centre of gravity of European politics, and the prompt declaration of German indifference to Manchuria is not without possible significance. It is of course quite conceivable that the appearance of the Russian scheme at this moment has some connection with German anxiety as to isolation in European politics. Berlin is well skilled in these occult moves.

Whatever happens it is just as well that the proposed Convention has been made public. Russian diplomacy has ever been frankly unscrupulous, so much so that it is our own fault if we are taken off our guard. Her constant variation between word and act has created a mistrust which tends to check the success of her machinations. Nearly half a century ago a great English pro-consul wrote "China has long been impotent and Russia has within the last few years by force or diplomacy appropriated half the province of Manchuria, the ancient patrimony of the reigning dynasty, and with it the command of the Amur. If this great Levantine has not swallowed the whole Chinese empire, it can only be that there are limits imposed by nature to the power of depletion and digestion of the largest predatory animal yet discovered." A year before this was written, Gladstone in the House of Commons described Russia as "a power which tends to override all the rest," and her latest move but discloses the fact that in half a century she has in no way altered her aims or her procedure.

STRANDING OF THE "GAISEN-MARU."

A telegram is said to have been received by the Japanese authorities to the effect that the Japanese steamer Gaisen-maru, which left Otaru on April 27th for Vladivostok, stranded at a distance of several miles to the east of the Pallot light-house at 9 p.m. on the following day. A Russian warship has proceeded to the scene of the accident to assist in refloating the vessel.

SMART RESCUE

FROM GERMAN MAIL.

As the North German Lloyd s.s. Kiatschou was on her way down to Singapore from Hongkong on the evening of the 1st inst. one of the second-class passengers, who had apparently suddenly gone insane, jumped overboard. On the alarm being given, the engines were reversed and a boat lowered and within twenty minutes she had picked up the man and got back alongside the ship again. The other passengers are loud in their praise of the smartness with which the rescue was accomplished, and a naval officer amongst them says that it could hardly have been excelled even on board a man-of-war.

COMMERCIAL.

TO-DAY'S INTELLIGENCE.

A slightly better tone in the market prevails though to no appreciable extent. With more reassuring news concerning the political situation in the North, buyers have been found for Banks at $670, at which small business is reported. HONGKONG FIRES can be placed without difficulty at $370. INDO-CHINA, in spite of a rumour of a proposed dividend of 100 s. share, have been forced down, and the quotation stands at $105 sellers. CHINA SUGAR cash shares are wanted at rates at which holders refuse to part, but a "bear" influence seeks to offer this stock for forward delivery at the equivalent of $108. STAR FERRIES, old, are weaker with sellers at $27.50. IN HONGKONG ESTATES transactions have taken place at $12.25. HOTELS have declined, business has been done at private rates, but the quotation stands at $7.45.

LANGKATS.

The Director of the Maatschappij Tot Mijne Bosch-en Landbouwexploitatie in Langkat, Ld., have declared a third interim dividend of Tl. 7.50 per share and a special bonus of Tl. 2.50 per share, payable on Monday, 15th June.

THE RICE TRADE.

Paddy boats are beginning to arrive in Bangkok again in somewhat larger number. But there can be no marked improvement in the exports till the rains have set in, increasing the water in the klongs, and at the same time giving the people confidence in the new season. Opinions vary as to how much paddy available for export there is still up-country.
